

THE HONORABLE

London, January 20.—A Versailles special to the Times says Thiers thinks himself personally affected by the rejection of the tariff measure; his resignation will be presented to-day. If accepted, it is thought the Germans will re-occupy a portion of France. Meantime, the Assembly contemplates a vote of confidence in Thiers and his Cabinet, to avert a crisis. The Diet of Croatia having ignored the compromise proposed by the joint Governments of Austria and Hungary, was dissolved by an Imperial decree.

John Stuart Mill declines to preside at the Dilke demonstration.

VERSAILLES, January 20.—M. Thiers and whole ministry has resigned. The Assembly refused to accept Thiers' resignation, and appointed a committee to effect a compromise. A deputation are waiting on the President, to induce him to reconsider, but he insists on resigning, as the Assembly has rejected his tariff measures. Excitement prevails.

CAIRO, January 20.—Kauri Sing and other chiefs of the recent revolt have been captured, with twenty-nine of their adherents; all executed.

PARIS, January 20.—The Register says it is rumored that Dr. Helmboldt, who has been under medical restraint at a Maison Desse, in the vicinity of Paris, was recently released.

American Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—Voorhees withdrawing from the Louisiana Committee, the Speaker substituted Archer. Lieutenant Farran has been assigned to quartermaster duty in the Department of the South—relieving Major Eddy, who is assigned to the Department of the Gulf; relieving Major Belger, who is assigned to the Department of Texas.

Probabilities.—The barometer will probably rise very generally on Sunday East of the Rocky Mountains; partially cloudy and clear weather will prevail in the Southern and Gulf States; cloudy and clearing weather in the Middle and New England States; rising barometer, with falling temperature, and possibly light snow, will continue during the night, from Lake Michigan to New York. Warning signals ordered. Dangerous winds are not anticipated for to-night for our stations.

St. Louis, January 20.—Edward Freeman, formerly one of Quantrell's band and afterwards a Union spy, and since the war residing in Louisiana, was brought here yesterday, by two men, representing themselves as sheriffs of Louisiana, on the pretence of a warrant being issued for the prisoner by the Governor of Missouri, who, they said, offered a reward of $5,000 for him. No one appearing to take him in custody, Gen. Harding, under whom he served during the war, had him habes corpus, and he was discharged. He really had been kidnapped, drugged, shackled and brought here by the alleged sheriffs, without authority of law—as he thinks, through the agency of several of Quantrell's old gang, who are in Louisiana and were afraid of him. His record is rather rough, but nothing appears against him since the close of the war.

TORONTO, January 20.—The Legislature has appointed a committee to investigate the alleged United States Senatorial election frauds.

CINCINNATI, January 20.—The Kentucky Senate voted—26 to 16—in favor of negro testimony.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 20.—The foreign trade of the city increased $9,000,000 during the year—$7,000,000 of which is with China. The tobacco dealers are uniting in a movement for the suppression of alleged custom house frauds upon their trade.

WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA, January 20.—The Commissioners have published a statement, in which West Virginia acknowledges a debt to old Virginia of $1,000,000.

MEMPHIS, January 20.—The stockholders in the Memphis and Charleston Road ratified a lease of the road to the Pennsylvania Central combination, by a vote of 5 to 1.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The Investigation Committee continues its sessions here next week.

The Erie stockholders, representing $30,000,000, protest to the Legislature against the present management.

Several unions have withdrawn from the Working Men's Union, on the ground that the organization was political.

MOBILE, January 20.—Judge Wood's Federal Circuit Court set aside the proceedings in bankruptcy against the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad Company, and appointed a receiver, but granted the defendants a re-hearing to-day.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The Market Savings Bank has closed, and a receiver appointed.

Minister and Madame Catozzy departed for Europe to-day. Catozzy has high hopes for the American people, notwithstanding their present bad and corrupt Government.

The deficit in the Market Savings Bank, which closed this morning, is $100,000.

ANNAPOLIS, January 20.—The court adjourned to Monday, without concluding the argument.

CLEVELAND, January 20.—Rev. Dr. Lyman, of the Euclid Presbyterian Church, is dead.

NEW ORLEANS, January 20.—The Carterites took their seats to-day. Pinchback's election is confirmed—17 to 16—Pinchback casting the decisive vote.

BOSTON, January 20.—A mania-a-potu patient at Lakeville shot two fatally and two seriously.

CHARLESTON, January 20.—Arrived—steamship South Carolina, New York.

DEATH OF DR. JOHN S. RICH.—Our community was saddened, on the 13th instant, by the death of Dr. John S. Rich—one of our oldest and most experienced physicians.—Clarendon Press.

COLUMBIA, S. C., January 20.—Sales of cotton, to-day, 70 bales—middling 20c. New York, January 20.—Noon.—Stocks much stronger than at the opening. Governments and States dull but steady. Money 6. LONDON, January 20.—Consols 92 1/2. Bonds 92 1/2.

THE MIKADO'S DESIRE TO AMERICANIZE JAPAN.—The Imperial Japanese embassy, consisting of Takura, Prime Minister of Japan, coming as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the treaty powers; Kedo, a member of the Imperial Privy Council and Assistant Ambassador; Akaba, Chief Minister of Finance and Assistant Ambassador; Ito, Assistant Minister of Public Works and Ambassador of the second rank, and Hama Gueki, Assistant Minister of Foreign Affairs and Ambassador of the second rank, arrived at San Francisco on Monday last, on the steamer America. The ambassadors have with them twenty-six attachés, sixteen secretaries and interpreters, sixteen servants and twenty-three Japanese students, who are bound for New York. This is the most important embassy ever sent from Japan, and comes for the purpose of conferring with the Governments of the treaty powers in relation to the revision of the treaties demanded to be made before July of the present year. Mr. Delong, the American Minister, will reach Washington with the embassy. Hon. Charles W. Brooks, Japanese Consul, also accompanies the embassy. Mrs. Delong, the wife of the American Minister, has in charge six Japanese girls of high rank, who are to be educated in this country.

A late edict of the Mikado says: "My country is now undergoing a complete change from old to new ideas, which I sincerely desire. Therefore, I call on all the wise and strong-minded to appear and become good guides to the Government. During the youth time, it is positively necessary to view foreign countries, so as to become enlightened as to new ideas of the world, and both boys and girls, who will soon become men and women, should be allowed to go abroad, and my country will be benefited by this knowledge so acquired. Females have heretofore had no position socially, because it was considered they were without understanding; but if educated and intelligent, they should have due respect."

The embassy will remain in San Francisco eight or ten days, and then come East.

Too Modest.—The Washington Patriot says: "The deficiency bill of $27,000, lately introduced in the House, to remedy the costs of the Ku Klux investigation in South Carolina and elsewhere, is entirely too modest. Such a bill, to be honest and effective, ought to provide for the lost cotton crop in nine Counties in South Carolina; for damages for false imprisonment of hundreds of innocent and unoffending citizens, and for compensation for the grief, terror and disorganization occasioned to at least one poor County which was, confessedly by mistake, embraced in the President's proclamation of outlawry. Let members see to it and have this bill properly amended."

A new post office has been opened at Pickett's Ferry, Laurens County—John G. Turner, Postmaster.

THE HONORABLE MIKADO.—The New York World says: "The Grand Duke Alexis has abandoned his projected buffalo hunt in company with Eleanora Phil and Spotted Tail, and in obedience to the orders of the Czar, has repaired to St. Louis, whence, in company with Admiral Posselt, he expects an immediate recall in consequence of the disruption of our relations with Russia."

A Berlin letter to the New York Tribune states that the German Government has received a circular from Gortschakoff, relative to the recall of Catozzy. The circular is said to have been rendered necessary by the following circumstances: The American Minister, Kramer, during a dinner at the house of the German Minister, at Copenhagen, proposed the reading of a letter from the American Government explanatory of the Catozzy affair, but the Russian Minister refused to listen, and the German Minister said such a letter must not be read in his house. Subsequently Mr. Kramer went to each Minister in Copenhagen, and read the letter to them individually. The same letter states that the Czar considers Alexis as slighted by President Grant in not returning his visit, and the Emperor will not allow Alexis to return to Washington.

A special despatch to the New York Evening Post, dated Washington, 16th instant, says:

Inasmuch as denial has been made of the correctness of your correspondent's despatch of Saturday last, announcing that our Government contemplates the recalling of Minister Curtin and the suspension of all diplomatic intercourse with Russia, in consequence of Prince Gortschakoff's letter, it is proper to say that the despatch was founded upon information obtained from a very high officer. This gentleman now says, in a most positive manner, that the first purpose of the Administration was to meet Gortschakoff's letter by prompt action; but upon further consideration, it was decided to do nothing until the full text of the letter shall be received from Minister Curtin, and not to take such an important step upon newspaper reports only.

The United States navy is composed of 178 vessels, nominally mounting 1,426 guns. Of these 36 vessels, with an aggregate of 398 guns, are on foreign stations or cruising; 8 carrying 103 guns, are used as school and practice ships; 7 with 90 guns, are used as receiving ships, and 1 of 10 guns, is occupied as marine barracks at Pensacola, Fla. 17 unarmed vessels are stationed at various naval yards, and 26 vessels, with 206 guns, are repairing. 1 vessel of 8 guns is in winter quarters on Lake Erie. The remaining 82 vessels are not in use, 4 of 61 guns being out of commission; 14 of 130 guns being in ordinary; 49 of 204 guns being laid up; 13 of 193 guns being unfinished; 1 of 23 guns being sunk, and 1 being condemned. There are 1,424 commissioned officers and 188 warrant officers on the active list. The commissioned officers are employed as follows:

On duty at sea, 687; on duty ashore, 484; waiting orders and unemployed, 202; on leave of absence, 25, and on sick leave, 26. The principal officers consist of 1 admiral, 1 vice admiral, 12 rear admirals, 25 commodores, 50 captains, 90 commanders, and 164 lieutenants. There are 15 medical directors, with the relative rank of captain; 15 medical inspectors, with the rank of commander; 50 surgeons, with the rank of lieutenant commander; 30 passed assistant surgeons, and 46 assistant surgeons. There are 13 pay directors, 13 pay inspectors, 50 paymasters, and 67 assistant paymasters. There are 60 chief engineers, 99 first assistant engineers, and 70 second assistant engineers.

CHARACTER.—We may judge a man's character by what he loves—what pleases him. If a person manifests delight in low, sordid objects, the vulgar song and debasing language, in the misfortunes of his fellows or animals, we may at once determine the complexion of his character. On the contrary, if he loves purity, truth, modesty—if virtuous pursuits engage his heart and draw out his affections—we are satisfied that he is an upright man. When we see a young man fond of fine clothes and making a fop of himself, it is a sure sign that he thinks the world consists of outside show and ostentation, and he is certain to make an unstable man, without true affection or friendship, fond of change and excitement and wearying of those objects and pursuits, which, for a time, give him pleasure.

A LITTLE TRUTH.—The New York Tribune, in some comments upon sundry sharp criticisms upon Rev. Mr. Hopworth's late renunciation of Unitarianism, which have been published by some of his old denominational associates, says: "We begin almost to despair of finding anything worthy to be called Christian charity in all the land. We are all blandly liberal until somebody treads upon our own theological corns, and then we at once discover that the offender isn't much of a man and a brother after all." It won't require any great amount of self-examination for any man to satisfy himself of the truth of that last sentence.

A New York letter, of the 16th inst., says: "The indifference with which the presence of the small-pox among us has been viewed by the community at large, will probably be disturbed by the announcement, to-day, that the pestilence is steadily on the increase. Since noon, yesterday, there have been eighteen new cases and three deaths. The physicians, acting under the instructions of the Board of Health, continue to vaccinate all applicants gratis. During the past week, between 7,000 and 8,000 persons were thus attended to."

All the old maids in Maine claim that they could have married the present Governor of the State in the days when he was hard up and wore hickory shirts.

At Greenville, Pitt County, N. C., on Tuesday last, Mr. Pritchard and a younger brother attacked Mr. Robert Greene, a highly respectable gentleman of that place, for an alleged insult to the wife of Mr. Pritchard, an insult, we learn, that was not so intended. The Pritchards used sticks and pistols on Mr. Greene, who, acting in self-defence, fired upon both, killing the elder and married brother, and seriously wounding the other.

A Charlestown (Mass.) photographer gives a striking instance of feminine artifice. While arranging the instrument preparatory to taking a young lady's picture, he suddenly turned to give some directions to his fair customer, when, to his astonishment, he beheld her busily engaged stuffing her cheeks with paper, to fill out the meagre proportions which nature had so rudely neglected.

David R. Dickey, of Randolph, Tipton County, Tenn., came to an end, Monday. He made a bet that he could eat four bottles of brandy peaches and drink all the liquor, together with two tumblers of raw whiskey. He drank the whiskey, and finished all the peaches, dropping dead while holding the last peach in his mouth. But he won the bet.

NATIONAL BANK IN GREENVILLE.—We are pleased to learn, from the Greenville Enterprise, that the citizens of that thriving young mountain city are to be favored with banking privileges. A meeting is advertised for Wednesday next, the 24th of this month, inviting the presence of all the leading merchants, with a view to the organization of a national bank.

DESTRUCTION OF A CITY BY AN EARTHQUAKE.—The former reported destruction of the city of Oran, in the Argentine Republic, South America, by an earthquake, is confirmed. Not a house was left standing, but there was only one life lost. Hamahua was also damaged, and a volcano had developed itself in its neighborhood.

A female editor on a Milwaukee paper and an ostensibly masculine one on a La Crosse journal are making love to each other through the columns of their respective organs. He calls her "a charming young lady," and tells her words thrill through him like a beautiful dream; and she reiterates.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.—We regret to learn that Captain S. S. Wise had his dwelling house, about five miles from Blackville, destroyed by fire on Tuesday last. We have not heard the particulars, further than that the cause was accidental.—Barnwell Sentinel.

The Louisville Jour., referring to the fact that somebody is going to build a hotel in Rhode Island ninety-two feet long and sixty feet wide, expresses astonishment that the authorities should "permit anybody to put the State all under one roof in that way."

Two sisters sleeping together in Cincinnati were awakened, when one whispered, "Oh, sister, I see a spirit!" The phantom broke into a coarse "snigger," and the girls shrieked, but it got away with $48 and a set of furs.

The Thames Tunnel, thought to be such a novelty, was anticipated by one under the Euphrates at Babylon, and the ancient Egyptians had a Suez Canal.
